Il Tempo

Welcome to Il Tempo (The Times), the Newsletter of the Barony of Ponte Alto, one of the northern baronies in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Il Tempo strives to be an informative read that you look forward to. To this end, we are always appreciative of any contributions to it, perhaps an article of a project you are working on or are interested in, how to make/play a period game, your experience at an event, how/what to prepare for a day trip, a recipe/ piece of garb that you've made, documentation on an item you've competed - a how to on documentation, a few words on a historical person/event, photos, a book review, something to share with a newcomer - perhaps a short autobiography of your persona or how you came to figure out your persona.

The list can go on for ages - only limited by the speed at which our hands can write out what our minds can think of.

Come, share with us adventures in the great Barony of Ponte Alto, in the grand Kingdom of Atlantia, in this - the current Middle Ages!

Simple Cyssor

1/2# Brown Sugar
2 Gallons of Apple Juice (no preservatives!)
2# honey
yeast

Put all the ingredients together
pasteurize if necessary and pitch yeast

Let it sit until you see no bubbles
(or very few - you can let it carbonate that way)

Filtering is a matter of preference
(and taste, some don't like the flavor the yeast brings).

SCA Demo

SCA Demo at Fairfax County Public Schools

By Lady Annika Siltanen

In Fairfax County Public Schools in June, 5th graders spend several weeks learning about the Middle Ages, feudal societies, and what life was like “long ago.” This often culminates in a “Medieval Day,” where students dress up, do medieval activities and crafts, sell their wares/services at a medieval market, and have a scrumptious feast. On June 21, 2016, the 5th graders at Sunrise Valley Elementary School did just that, but had some special visitors who made the day truly come alive for them!

I am Lady Annika Siltanen, Chancellor of Youth Activities and Deputy Chatelain of the Barony of Ponte Alto. I am also, in my mundane life, Mrs. Harman, Speech Therapist at Sunrise Valley Elementary School.

Most of the people at my school know at least a little bit about what I do in my free time (namely, the SCA), so the 5th grade teachers enthusiastically asked if I could bring some of “my people” to do a presentation of some kind for Medieval Day. And wow, did “my people” step up and provide an amazing mini-demo for some enthralled 5th graders! Here follows a brief description of the amazing hour some spectacular Scadians spent with our students.

My lord Hannus and I came early to school that day to set up our canvas dayshade, to provide our presenters somewhere to sit in the shade, and to provide some medieval ambiance as well.

The students oohed and ahed even just walking out and seeing all the amazing things laid out in the grass.

The first presenter was His Excellency of Ponte Alto, Baron Alric the Mad. He spent several minutes armoring up in front of a rapt audience, explaining all of the armor parts and what they were made of as he went. Her lovely Excellency Baroness Cellach Mor aided him in dressing, and generally providing commentary throughout. Baron Alric also showed off some weapons, much to the delight of the students.

Next was Lady Margaret Lad, who enthralled the students with her descriptions of archery in period, including discussions of the different types of bows (including crossbows, recurves, long-bows, and horse bows) and arrows. She talked about what bows and arrows were made of, how they were used, and let students point out differences and posit the reasons for those differences.

As you can see, there were questions and comments galore!

Lord Hannus even showed off his thumb ring and was able to demonstrate the differences in draw lengths and styles.

Perhaps the most visually-impressive demonstration of the day was done by Baroness Adina von der Heide, who brought her spectacular collection of hand-painted silk banners.

She shared some information about the crafting of the banners and painting on silk, and also spoke briefly about heraldry, colors, and their meanings in period as well as in the SCA.

SCA Demo at Fairfax County Public Schools

This feast for eyes soon turned into a feast for the other senses as Lord Stephan Grimm stepped up, and, after wowing the students with his German mercenary garb and doing a quick explanation of clothing in period, pulled out a bag of smelly, sticky raw wool. And proceeded to pass it around so that the students could get a multi-sensory experience!

He even produced a drop spindle and spun some wool yarn right there in front of awed 5th graders! There was also discussion about various types of weaving and how fabric was made in the middle ages.

Then milady Melanie followed up with a brief talk about other fiber arts in period, such as knitting and embroidery. The students were quite impressed with her skills!

As the presentation continued, however, the skies darkened and the winds picked up. It appeared that the storm on the horizon was not going to wait until we were done! But there was still more of the demo to go! Milady Alix started her talk about Medieval music and instruments, but it soon became obvious that we would have to continue inside before we all got completely soaked! The students were eager to hear the rest of the presentations, however, so invited us inside (delaying their feast!) to finish up where it was dry.

The students were eager to hear the rest of the presentations, however, so invited us inside (delaying their feast!) to finish up where it was dry.

After the students were resettled in the pod, Lord Hannus Siltanen continued the musical demonstration by playing his ancient Finnish kan-tele and singing the oldest recorded piece of secular music, "Reis Glorios." His resonant baritone carried through the hallways, and students and teachers alike stopped in to see where the beautiful music as coming from.

Meanwhile, outside, the previous presenters who were not involved in the music demo were frantically putting everything away in the driving rain, for which they have my heartfelt thanks!

After Lord Hannus' performance, milady Alix sat down at her harp and entranced the students with her expert playing. There were many questions and exclamations of "that's so beautiful!" and "I want to play the harp too some day!"

Following the gorgeous harp music, the members of the Ponte Alto Singers present (Margaret, Hannus, Alix, and myself) sang a lively rendition of the medieval round "Hey Ho to the Green-

The students then retired to their repast, as their delectable feast had been waiting for them while we finished our demonstrations. There was not a peep of protest at our going for nearly double our allotted time! While some Scadian visitors had to run off back to work or other commitments, several stayed to chat, and even got some shillings to spend in the medieval market! We have already been asked back (for the whole day, if we would like!) for next year's Medieval Day at Sunrise Valley Elementary School.

I cannot thank the wonderful presenters and helpers enough! Besides the people mentioned here, Lady Barbara MacAuley, Chatelain of Ponte Alto, joined us and helped facilitate the demo as well, and milady Melanie's son also helped. All of these people took time out of their busy schedules to join us, in the middle of a weekday, to share their love of the Middle Ages with students who will not soon forget the experience. I had so many comments and thanks from students, parents, and teachers on how spectacular the demo was! Perhaps I will leave it to my friend Clara however, who said it best:

Huzzah!

We really could use your help

There are several positions in our Barony that could use a Deputy; actually, all of the positions that we have could benefit by having at least one deputy.

Why a Deputy? Well, it is easy for any one of use to intend to do something if we don't take into account that the SCA is what we do with our time after we are finished doing what we do to pay the bills.

With deputies, the work load can be shared, allowing more work to be accomplished with less time and stress for any one individual.

Besides, it is a great way to work with others to do something different to help make yours and other's SCA experience that much better!
